

30 Point Business Risk Management Implementation Plan

The 30 Point Business Risk Management Implementation Plan and Risk Management Tools have been developed to assist Retailers, Service Stations, Roadhouses and C-Stores meet their obligations under risk management.

The Implementation Plan and the Tools urges potential users to develop their OH&S and Compliance to Laws Policy Statements, develop an Implementation Plan for risk management and establish processes for risk assessment and regular review.

Business Responsibilities

Under OH&S laws, Environmental, Food Safety and other Legislations, an employer has a responsibility for their employees and others in the workplace.

In particular employers are bound by OH&S Law to ensure the health, safety & welfare of all employees.

This means ensuring that employees and others are not exposed to risk while in the workplace.

Employers have a number of other responsibilities under various legislations for risk management, such as Food Safety, Tobacco Retailing Laws, Trade Practice Compliance, and Equal Employment Opportunity Laws.

Establishing and maintaining a Business Risk Management System is essential for employers and business operators to discharging their occupational Health & Safety obligations.
